123 Black Sea Voyage

Bill & Nancy Devereux

(904) 418-8845 devereux47@gmail.com

On the map, the Black Sea looks like a lake, broken only by small islands and thin sand bars, but its expanse stretches out to meet the countries that share it: Bulgaria, Romania, Ukraine, Turkey, Georgia, and Russia. The Black Sea spirit is at once magnetic, a stockpile of dead civilizations (Venetian, Byzantine, Ottoman) and the new spirit of the bordering nations. Explore the flavors, the aromas, and the tastes that are just part of the multi-course feast from the Sea. This is a participatory event, so be prepared to learn why the Sea is called Black and more, while enjoying an extraordinarily good evening. (Oh, I forgot the fireworks at the end!)

131 Cultivating Your Writing Habit

Jinny Batterson & Bill Finger

(919) 986-1265 battersonjinny@yahoo.com

Many of us like to scribble, whether it's a get well wish, a birthday greeting to a loved one, a note to a friend or relative, or something more formal - a letter to the editor, say, or even an essay, memoir, or book of poetry. UUFR writers Bill Finger and Jinny Batterson have teamed up to put on an evening of joviality and jotting. We'll briefly discuss our respective writing tools and techniques, then walk through an exercise or two in creating a short piece of writing--a letter, a piece of doggerel, or a biographical sketch. Light refreshments will be provided, including one of Bev Manifold's signature desserts. The evening will conclude with door prizes for everyone: your choice of an autographed copy of a UUFR author's book or

132 (Slightly) Advanced Bridge Bidding

Brenda Rigby

(919) 367-6101 BrendaCRigby@gmail.com

Maybe you've been playing bridge for a while or used to play but would like to update your game. Maybe you'd like to be introduced to some basic bidding conventions for future reference. Here's your chance! This 4-session 2-hour series of lessons will cover the bids I think are most helpful. We'll bid a lot of preset hands to get a feel for when these conventions are used and how they can improve your results.

The lessons will move along, and I'll assume a basic understanding of opening five-card majors and other basic bidding principles. Conventions we'll cover: Stayman and Jacoby Transfers over partner's NT opening; cue bids; Blackwood and Gerber; weak pre-emptive bids; and 2 club strong openers.
